THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE V.V.S.RAO

WRIT PETITION No.20557 of 2005

ORDER:

The petitioner is a resident of Keshavaram Village, Shamirpet Mandal, Ranga Reddy District. She gave a complaint to the District Collector as well as the Revenue Divisional Officer in August 2005. In her complaint she alleged that the fifth respondent, who is the Sarpanch of the Village, abused the petitioner and her sons alleging that the land in Survey No.2 of Keshavaram Village is a temple land. The petitioner alleges that no action is taken against the fifth respondent either under Section 249 of the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, 1994, or under Section 145 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, and therefore, she filed the present writ petition.

The respondents have not filed counter affidavit. This Court has perused the affidavit accompanying the writ petition and the two representations made by the petitioner, one to Revenue Divisional Officer and one to the District Collector. Going by these two complaints, this Court is convinced that the allegation is made mainly against the fifth respondent when he allegedly tried to interfere with the petitioner's land. In such a case, the proper remedy is to approach the civil Court for an injunction. In such a dispute, the District Collector or the Revenue Divisional Officer cannot interfere in the matter.

The Writ Petition is misconceived and is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
